DCM Mfg. Inc., a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Dreison International, Inc. and (UNITE!) Union of Needletrades, Industrial & Textile Employees, Cleveland Joint Board. Case 8-CA-30002

September 11, 1998

DECISION AND ORDER

BY MEMBERS LIEBMAN, HURTGEN, AND BRAME

Pursuant to a charge and amended charge filed on June 23 and 26, 1998, respectively, the Acting General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint and notice of hearing on July 9, 1998, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 8-RC-15695. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer, with defenses, admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On August 5, 1998, the Acting General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On August 10, 1998, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain, but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to the election in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.¹

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, an Ohio corporation, with an office and place of business in Cleveland, Ohio, has been engaged in the manufacture of parts that are used in trucks, buses, and military vehicles.²

Annually, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations, sells and ships from its Cleveland, Ohio facility, goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly to points outside the State of Ohio.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6) and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held March 20, 1998, the Union was certified on June 1, 1998, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All production and maintenance employees employed by DCM Mfg., Inc. at its 4540 West 160th Street, Cleveland, Ohio facility, including material handlers, inspectors, machine maintenance, building maintenance, assembly, machine operator, welders, lead persons, quality control, and R & D technicians, but excluding all office clerical employees, inside sales employees, professional employees, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

By letter dated June 12, 1998, the Union requested that the Respondent recognize and bargain, and, by letter dated June 17, 1998, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to recognize and bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

By refusing on and after June 17, 1998, to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

¹ The Respondent's motion to dismiss the General Counsel's motion and its demand that the complaint be dismissed is therefore denied.

² The description of the Respondent's business is as set forth in its answer.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).

(b) Within 14 days after service by the Region, post at its facility in Cleveland, Ohio, copies of the attached notice marked "Appendix."³ Copies of the notice, on forms provided by the Regional Director for Region 8, after being signed by the Respondent's authorized representative, shall be posted by the Respondent and maintained for 60 consecutive days in conspicuous places including all places where notices to employees are customarily posted. Reasonable steps shall be taken by the Respondent to ensure that the notices are not altered, defaced, or covered by any other material. In the event that, during the pendency of these proceedings, the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facility involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since June 17, 1998.

(c) Within 21 days after service by the Region, file with the Regional Director a sworn certification of a responsible official on a form provided by the Region attesting to the steps that the Respondent has taken to comply.
